Inflation rate

525. SHRIMATI VANGA GEETHA: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the Inflation rate touched an almost two decade low during the recent week; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI BALASAHEB VIKHE PATIL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The annual point to point inflation rate (based on Wholesale Price Index) in the first six months of 2001-02 (April-September) remained close to 5 per cent level. It started declining after September to reach a low 1.13 per cent in the week ending February 9, 2002 which was the lowest since January 27, 1979, when the inflation rate had touched a low level of 1 per cent. There was virtually no price rise in the manufactured sector which registered just about 0.2 per cent annual price rise by February, 2002, though in the primary product group, which includes agriculture commodities, the price rise was 3.17 per cent. The effect of the rise in prices of the fuel group experienced last year, due to an increase in administered prices of fuel products, evened out during 2001-02 and the annual inflation in the fuel group stood at 1.6 per cent in February, 2002.
